Eleven books were given by Mrs. Manion and fifty-seven books by Mrs. S. Carnes.

Mrs. Mathews asked for a note of thanks to be sent Mildred French, by the club, for her entertainment given for the club on her recent visit to Meridian.

No report from the entertainment committee was ready.

Change of meeting day was discussed. Mrs. French made a motion and Mrs. Mathews seconded it to change the day to the first Sat. P.M. of the mo.

The Pres. appointed Mrs. Leighton and French to draw up the resolution.

Communications were then read. We were informed by the Century Club of Nampa, that we are assisting hostesses at the next 2nd Dis't federation meeting which will be in Nampa next May.

We also planned to entertain the Columbian Club of Boise, at our regular meeting in Oct.

Sept. 27, 1934

It was decided to refuse the Extension Dep't use of the club rooms at their corn and hog meeting gratis.

The program was then turned over to Mrs. French, who introduced Mr. Laurel Elam of Boise, who talked to us on law enforcement. This talk was very interesting and instructive, and he took time to answer many questions.

Mrs. Sherman Lauderbaugh sang for us, Even as the Flower and Serenade by Neidlingar, playing her own accompaniment.

Maureen Voorhees gave two piano solos. Punchinello and Country dance by Percy Grainger.

Lunch of apple pie, cheese and coffee were served by our hostesses. Mrs. Taylor, Lawson and Rains.
