Mrs. Susie Cairns reported that work had been done on plumbing.

Mrs. Virgil Smith was reported as being very poorly most of the time. A report too was given that Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eastman had gone to Seattle for several weeks where a daughter would assist in caring for Mr. Eastman.

Mrs. Veach praised the librarian and her assistant for the work that they are doing. During October 1352 books had been loaned, 124 donated, some for memorials, 24 new cards issued, 73 new books purchased and placed on the shelves. 434 books had been purchased and processed.

EMERGENCY LOAN-monies turned in were $5 from W.A. Heikes, $30, Mrs. Ella Byerly and $5 Mrs. T.C. <sup>Nowland</sup> Nowland. Articles used were chairs, bed, walker and oxygen regulator.

Mrs. Rosti suggested that after the holidays ones interested in sewing to purchase and use Vogue patters.

Mrs. Veach after several years elapsing had, <sup>absolutely,</sup> procured her own picture to be included with those of the past presidents.

Mrs. Botkin, complying with a request from president Soucis and library board chairman had written thank you notes to Mrs. Ross Hadfield for the girl scouts, to Genevieve O'Hara for a memorial, to Bernhardine Hoseley for the Beta Sigma Phis. Several others had been written in connection with the work in the library.

Mrs. Soucie, under new business explained the need for protection ~~it~~ from policies covering liability and products insurance. The latter refers to our policy of serving public dinners. Basic policies and costs were discussed. These policies are priced differently, so each was presented separately. In each case a MOTION was made by Elma Veach that a policy be taken by the club; seconded and carried. Mrs. Soucie spoke of articles that are acceptable at the State School in Nampa. Mrs. Veach told of the work being done for the retarded childred at the school. Interested people are providing shopping trips and attendance at a church service during the Christmas season, for children able to make such trips and have no others to take them. These two projects and others have a very deep meaning for the patients.

Our next regular meeting falls on New Years; following discussion it was decided to hold it as scheduled. The theme of the program was announced: oddities and antiques. This should provide many interesting articles.

Mrs. Soucie announced that the two dishes ~~were~~ <sup>were</sup> out to collect the Pennies for Pines and Pennies for Art, two yearly projects.

Our president adjourned the meeting after having wished for every one a ~~newyear~~ Christmas both delightful and happy, a new year with peace and contentment.

Mrs. Hosely left a dollar gift for the club.
