Meeting called to order by the president, Mary Alice White, with 32 members and 3 guests present. The Collect was given followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Program in charge of Leane Elmer.

As a prelude to our travel program, Lillian Peters sang "Far Away Places" accompanied by her sister Emily Pratt.

Mary Boice took us along with her on her trip to those far away places, by sharing her 74 days journey around the world by freighter, following Ferdinand Magellan's route of the 16th century.

She had many interesting mementos she had purchased along the way and explained what they were and where she bought them.

Thank you, Mary, for making the April meeting a real highlight for us!

The business meeting opened with the reading of the minutes of the March meeting. They were accepted as read.

Florence Hall, Treasurer gave her March report which was accepted and filed with the secretary.

The Emergency Loan Committee reported 6 loans made during the month.

President, Mary Alice, showed us our Certificate of Incorporation from the State of Idaho. All the amendments to articles are in order and at last we have proven, we hope, that we are truly a non-profit organization. Hopefully, all necessary materials and proofs are in to the powers-that be and a review is in progress. If all requirements have been met we will receive from the Gannett Publishing Company the grant which will help us to make our Emergency program even more of an asset to our Community.

Oma Jenkins of the Safety Committee read an article from the Valley News on safety and how the Buddy System works for our protection. She also told those of us who receive the R.S.V.P. (Retired Senior Citizens Volunteer Program) news letter that we would find many fine suggestions that would help us.

Scrapbook materials would be very much appreciated.

The Nominating Committee consisting of Rilous Yates, Nita Scribner and Margaret Judd presented the following list of names for the 1977-1978 officers
