Dear Ms. Booth,

KBSU is in the process of developing public affairs programming concerning issues pertaining to women, i.e. organizations, work, education, careers, health care, day care, etc..

As part of our effort to learn more about the activities and concerns of women in the Boise valley, we would like to receive information from your organization. General information about meetings, workshops, newsletters available, and other literature would be appreciated.

We would also be glad to receive public service announcements about your organization's activities.

Thank you for whatever assistance you can give us.

Sincerely,

Members of the Occident Club met at 1:30 at the Tel-Car building on Fairview Ave. Opal Riddle had arranged with the manager to explain their operation and equipment. They operate both Tel-Car and Tel-Page systems.

We returned to the club-house where the business meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Opal Riddle.

Flag Salute and Collect were recited in unison.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Treasurer's report accepted.

Bills were allowed to - Mary Alice White, $8, for typing year book, Economy Printing $32.81, printing year book, Leone Luedtke $94, ribbon for year book, Elizabeth Ryan $2.50, for trash hauling.

Edith Crockett has sent flowers or cards to Margaret Judd, Mary Boice, Doris Bowen & Lena Bodine.

The Ryans checked at the court-house and found that the Telephone Co. fence is on their line. The club frontage consists of 3 - 30 ft. lots. Mr. Ryan and Mr. Hall cleared the area and hauled the trash to the dump. Mr. Hall will clean the leaves and gutters later.

Emergency Loan receipts were $15.

Opal had been asked by the Meth. Women if the club would care to buy a book, "Quilts in America", for the library. It would cost $25. After discussion a motion made, seconded and carried to buy "Quilts in America" for the library with the stipulation it is to be used for reference only.

Leona has been asked by an a cappello, non-profit, musical group to use the club room for practice once a week, rent-free. The request was turned down.

Opal reminded us to have labels for kidney machine.

Bernice Booth reported Senior Citizens wanted to know if many would desire a dining room in a low cost housing project.
