Occident Club Meeting September 1983

Following a potluck dinner September 5th, 1983 June Thomas, President, of the Meridian Occident Club called the meeting to order.

The club collect was read in unison and the flag salute was given followed by singing "God Bless America"

Guests introduced were: Esther Allen, guest of Mary Alice White, Mildred Bradley, Marguerite Patch's sister and her guest; Debbie Weber and Jennifer Robinson, representatives of Meridian High School delegates to Girls State and Charlene Denny, Carl Rathjen and Gaye Walter from the Meridian Library Board.

For the program Debbie and Jennifer each gave a very enthusiastic and entertaining report of their week at Girls State. President, June Thomas presented each girl with a token of appreciation.

Following the program the business followed. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The treasurers report showing a balance of $2,220.51 and Money Manager Savings Acc't showing $1837.93 on hand as of August 31, 1983 was accepted and entered into the minutes.

Myrtle Spencer expressed appreciation for the flower sent to her and thank you notes from Opal Merrell, L. Frazier and Edna Myers were read as well as a note from Dorothy Brace, ^{former member} who has now moved to Brineville, Ore. A letter from Dr. Clark Swain who has a Counseling Service was explained to the group telling us he was available if we needed someone for a program.

Bills allowed were for $10.00 and $3.00 to June Thomas for the printing of the year books. Year books were distributed.

The letter that had been sent to each member previous to the meeting requesting members be present to vote on whether or not to release the title to the Occident building to the Library Board was read. The vote was unanimous to release said title with 32 members voting yes.

Hazel Rhodes then read the inspiration for the day entitled "Miracles" The growth of the Library from its beginning to its present day success was likened to a miracle.

By a majority vote Florance Hall was declared installed as treasurer for the coming year.

Hazel Goodwin turned in $10.00 from the emergency fund in addition to that already reported in the treasurers report

Edith Crockett told of cards sent.

Nancy Sage spoke of what could be done with emergency loan equipment if ever the club should not be able to continue. The Q.R.U. might use it and there could be space to put a metal building on the corner by the fire department.

The three members from the Library Board spoke for the Library expressing their appreciation of the action ^{taken} on the building.

No further business the meeting was adjourned

The Meridian Occident Club met October 3rd 1983 at 1:30 P.M. with 23 members present.

June Thomas, president called the meeting to order. The flag salute was given and the collect was read in unison followed by singing "God Bless America" accompanied by Monta Watts.

The days's inspiration entitled "As Summer Departs" by Ocie Tackett Lay was read by Esther Sharp.

For the program Mary Boyce gave a resume of their recent travels in Europe. They were gone some thirty days. Travel included London where they planned their own sightseeing, enabling them to see much more and where they spent one whole day at the Tower of London, also Paris Brussels, Amsterdam, Monaco and many other points. She showed treasures they had brought back from the different place.

Following the program the business meeting was held. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A letter from the Meridian Public Schools spotlighting National Education Week the third week of November was read. Thank you notes from Mae Jorge and Gays Walter were read.

Hazel Goodwin gave a report on the loan equipment.

Each member was asked to bring canned goods for "Tomorrows Hope" to be presented before Thanksgiving.

The Library has requested use of the picture panel of presidents of the Club so they can get a copy for the Library. Motion made that the request be granted, motion was seconded and carried.

The calling committee was asked to call each member before the meetings. The motion was made, seconded and carried that the 2 oak tables be sold to the Library as they had asked for them. Price to be $100.00 and $75.00. Discussion on what to do with the Club's tables, kitchen equipment etc. but no decision was reached.

No other business so the meeting was adjourned. Refreshments were served by the refreshment committee.

November Meeting

Meridian Occident Club met November 7th, 1983 at 1:30p.M. with 21 members and one guest, Alize Noll guest of Bessie Matcham, present.

Hazel Rhodes, vice-president called the meeting to order. The Flag Salute and Club Collect were given in unison and the day's inspiration, "Life is Change" was read. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Florance Hall, treasurer gave the treasurer's report which was accepted and entered into the minutes showing September's balance on hand of $2217.28 and a money manager's savings account of $1837.93. October's balance on hand was $2372.18 and money managers savings account of $1862.41.

A motion was made, seconded and carried to allow a bill to Lee Egbert for coffee in the amount of $7.72.

Hazel Goodwin in her committee report noted that at the present time four wheel chairs were now back in the loan cupboard. Two commodes and two new wheel chairs have been ordered. $208.00 was turned to the treasurer from equipment loaned out.

Thank you notes from Lela Rose and Bessie Alger were read.

In new business the motion was made, seconded and carried that the club give $25.00 to the Meridian Quick Response Unit.

Florance Hall explained that the fire insurance in the amount of $246.00 and the liability insurance of $58.00 on the building had been paid by the Occident Club up until May 1984. It was moved, seconded and carried that the club would not collect from the Library this time for their share of this cost which the club had already paid but let the Library benefit from this. It was suggested that Florance seek legal advice from Jack Riddlemoser, attorney and member of the Library board as to the insurance policies.

The program was given by Monta Watts on Americanism. She read testimony of two sisters who immigrated to America from the island of Sicily and had made America their home. Each told how much America had meant to them. Now in their 90's they had finally received naturalization papers, tho both are now in nursing homes.

All members sang "God Bless America" and Monta closed her program with a medley of songs played on the piano.

Meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by the committee.
